Fizer Outruns Chiclet and George Smith in Feature of Autumn Racing Inaugural on Muddy Track at Belmont

AUTUMN HANDICAP GOES TO OUTSIDER

Beverwyck Stable's Fizer Carries 90 Pounds to Victory in Morass at Belmont.

CHICLET RUNS SECOND

George Smith Wilts After Setting Early Pace-Steeplechase Rider Suspended.

Fizer was only a rank outsider, a espised eleventh hour entry, in the Bel-ont Park Autumn Handicap yesterday afternoon. Among the field of five. which included George Smith, Chiclet, Hank O'Day and Daddy's Choice, the son of Transvaal and Foundling was regarded as an arrant intruder. As one purveyor of feedbox information put n Figer could not win with a motor, but when the numbers were hoisted Figer's, like the illustrious Abou Ben them's, led all the rest.

Adhem's, led all the rest.

It was a rather fortunate decision on the part of G. Zeigler, trainer for the Beverwyck Stable, that converted Figer from an "also eligible" into an added starter. Zeigler knew his colt could trave! in the mud and he knew that in McGraw he had an able jockey. Above all he knew that no other horse in the race could show the way home under the wretched conditions when under the wretched conditions when Fizer was asked to carry only 30 pounds. Fizer accomplished far more than was supected of him by the very small coterie which backed him at 10 to 1. Not only did he win by a generous length but he ran the mile and a furlong in the fine time of 1:521-5. Even had the track not been a sea of mud, with treacherous shell troughs dotting it like a battlefield in France, Fizer's time would have compared most favorably with the record for the event, 1:51, set by August Belmont's Stromboli in the first running of the handicap in 1915. Last year Stromboli once more was the winner.

George Smith Third.

George Smith, one time Kentucky rby winner, which was an even money Derby winner, which was an even money favorite yesterday, failed to get better than third place. John Sanford's colt tired badly in the drive for home and was beaten by two lengths by Joseph E. Widener's imported Chiciet. Hank O'Day was fourth and Daddy's Choice, under a poor ride by McAtee, brought up the rear. James Butler's Capra also was entered, but was scratched.

The handicap was the feature of the manufact of the thirteen day autumn the start. He had Emil Herz's coit on his toes when the barrier was sprung and Daddy's Choice stole a length og the rest. The advantage rested with the Herz entry for only about fifty yards, for George Smith came up like a real handicap horse and assumed the pace setting position.

As they sped around the first turn George Smith was out there in front buck jumping." Fizer and McGraw "buck jumping." Fizer and McGraw made up the rear guard. Fizer at that stage looked like a 1,000 to 1 shot, with no takers. Chiclet and Hank O'Day were in close pursuit of the favorite. In the drive through the stretch George Smith found that his rest since the opening day at Saratoga had done him no good. Under the snorting chal-lenge of Chielar Bustonia mounts lenge of Chiclet, Buxton's mount wilter hid Chiclet, under Keogh, took com-mand of the situation. But the rank outsider was not to be denied. While the onlookers were busy matching Chiclet and George Smith. Fizer stole up through the pack and before Keogh knew it McGraw had his it up in front. He wore Chiclet down and won going away by a length. It may have been the mud, it may have been the light impost—it may have been But the fact remains that Fizer

Trempator Takes 'Chase.

In the day's chronicle of disappoint ment the rather appropriate name of Expectation is writ in letters large and teeplechase, at about two miles. Suffice it to say that Expectation did noth-ing of the sort. He finished second in a field of three, with George D. Wideers Trumpator a length in front and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Tetan fifteen lengths behind.

Expectation's failure not only peeved hose who had backed him at 8 to 5 but They called Jockey Haynes talk about his somewhat peculiar look-ing ride, and that he did not explain to their satisfaction is evidenced by his having been suspended indefinitely. Bending further investigation. To a freat many it looked as if Haynes had urged his mount to his utmost. Sam McMeekin scored his fourth sucrace, a selling affair at one mile. Sam was the favorite at 2 to 1. Top o' the Wave made the early pace and Sam kent in close pursuit. Butwell drew him clear on the turn and he won by five lengths with plenty in reserve.
